1. Two confidential directives calling on members of the Communist Party of Paraguay (CPP) to support the Democratic Colorado Party were issued in Paraguay during March by leaders of the CPP.
2. One pamphlet, signed by Ramon Riororto, Chief of the 2nd Zone of Asuncion, instructed Party members to support the Democratic Colorados "in order that we may have a little more liberty and work more united." Members were called upon to work for the defeat of Guion Rojo Provisional President Felipe Molas Lopez whom the pamphlet accused of being the servant of "Yankee Imperialist Fascists".
3. The other pamphlet, issued by Victor Martinez Ramirez, acting Secretary of the CPP, also followed the plan of supporting the Democratic Colorados and called for the ousting of both Felipe Molas Lopez and Liberato Rodriguez. The remainder of the pamphlet was a violent tirade against United States imperialist aims. The Secret Organization of Continental Investigation, the pamphlet stated, was created under the instruction and authorization of people who want a better world, in order to combat the "dangerous infiltration of imperialistic totalitarianism in the western hemisphere."
4. CPP members have greatly increased their organizational and propaganda activities in the country outside of Asuncion. Ramon Riororto is reported to be in Concepcion and Tomas Mayol, Chief of the First Zone of Asuncion and CPP treasurer, is now in Encarnacion. A second source has confirmed the increased Communist activity in Paraguay and reported that the extreme anti-United States Communist propaganda has been very successful among the uneducated farmers of Paraguay.
